Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Commercial Bank of Minnesota

What we do

How does Commercial Bank of Minnesota protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you.

How does Commercial Bank of Minnesota collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- make a wire transfer or apply for a loan
- use your debit card or perform a transaction with us and others

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
